HEALTH DEPARTMENT

G.O. No. 2129, 15th June 1951

Rules—Grant of leave and leave allowances to officers and servants of district boards and municipal councils for undergoing anti-rabic treatment—Draft——Confirmed.

READ—the following papers :—

G.O. No. 398, Health, dated 5th February 1951.

From the President, District Board, Ramanathapuram, dated 23rd May 1951, Roc. No. A-1. 9582/51.

Order—No. 2129, Health, dated 15th June 1951.

The draft of a rule to regulate the grant of leave and leave allowances to the officers and servants of district boards and municipal councils for undergoing anti-rabic treatment was published as Notification No. 15 in the Rules Supplement to Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 10th April 1951, for general information.

2. The President, Ramanathapuram District Board, has suggested that the limit of 20 days' casual leave specified in the draft rule may be increased to 30 days for an officer or servant of a district board proceeding for anti-rabic treatment This suggestion is not acceptable on the ground that the concession would be more favourable than what is granted to Government servants. The draft rule is hereby confirmed without any modification.

3. The appended notifications will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

APPENDIX.

NOTIFICATION.

I

In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 112 and 199 (1) of the Madras District Boards Act, 1920 (Madras Act XIV of 1920), His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following rule to regulate the grant of leave and leave allowances to the officers and servants of district boards for undergoing anti-rabic treatment :—

RULE.

Any officer or servant of a district board or any Government officer or servant lent to it drawing a pay of not more than Rs. 500 per month, proceeding to the Pasteur Institute, Coonoor, or to any other centre for anti-rabic treatment other than mission hospitals, provided by the Government, whichever is nearest to his residence, when exposed to infection from rabid animals or those suspected to be rabid, may be granted casual leave for 20 days, if he is employed in a place which is a treatment centre and casual leave for 20 days plus the time required to go to, and return from, the nearest treatment centre, if he is employed in any place other than the treatment centre, provided that if the absence of such employee makes it necessary for a substitute to be appointed during this period, the period of absence may, under the orders of the Government, be treated as extra leave on full average pay not debitable to his leave account and not as casual leave. Any further leave required should be regulated with reference to the leave rules applicable to him.

NOTE.—In this rule, the word " pay " shall be construed as referring to " substantive pay " as defined in rule 9 (28) of the Fundamental Rules.

II

In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 37 of Schedule IV and section 303 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Madras Act V of 1920), His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following rule to regulate the grant of leave and leave allowances to the officers and servants of municipal councils :—

RULE.

Any officer or servant of a Municipal Council or any Government officer or servant lent to it drawing a pay of not more than Rs. 500 per month proceeding to the Pasteur Institute, Coonoor, or to any other centre for anti-rabic treatment other than mission hospitals, provided by the Government, whichever is nearest to his residence when exposed to infection from rabid animals or those suspected to be rabid, may be granted casual leave for 20 days, if he is employed in a place which is a treatment centre and casual leave for 20 days plus the time required to go to, and return from, the nearest treatment centre, if he is employed in any place other than the treatment centre, provided that if the absence of such employee makes it necessary for a substitute to be appointed during this period, the period of absence may, under the orders of the Government, be treated as extra leave on full average pay not debitable to his leave account and not as casual leave. Any further leave required should be regulated with reference to the leave rules applicable to him.

NOTE.—In this rule the word " pay " shall be construed as referring to " substantive pay " as defined in rule 9 (28) of the Fundamental Rules.
